Description
Hi, when testing templates I edit the HTML and want to test the result. Quite often, I get a file access violation. It seems that html files are left open?

History

They shouldn't be left open (unless there is a crash of Servoy).
Will double-check my use of finally on all file stream opened.
Thanks.

- Status changed from New to Closed

Fixed in v1.4.7
