Description
we work with : elements.tree.setSelectedNodes([pckdtl 58C5AF30-61B8-4E93-83AF-ECE3D2D659ED])
This works fine in the smart client but in the webclient we get: java.lang.String cannot be cast to java.lang.Number Wrapped java.lang.ClassCastException: java.lang.String cannot be cast to java.lang.Number (C:\\servoy_workspace\\TSD\\projectx\\forms\\pckdtl_tree.js#629) at C:\\servoy_workspace\\TSD\\projectx\\forms\\pckdtl_tree.js:629 (btnDelete) at C:\\servoy_workspace\\TSD\\svy_nav_navigation\\forms\\svy_nav_fr_toolbar_base.js:370 (callProgramFunction)

Hi Sanneke,

Usage of that method is actually like in sample:

```
//Select treeview nodes
var selectedNodes = new Array();
selectedNodes[0] = 1;
elements.treeview.setSelectedNodes(selectedNodes);

Submitted array should contain 1 element that's the row's number which you want to select, indexing starts at 1.

We tested your idea but it doesn't work. The problem is that our RowId is not a number but a string. We made a sample, you can see that it works perfect in Smart Client but in Webclient it doesn't.

We tested your jar and it worked good. Only problem is that we work with the experimental jar.

Hi Sanneke,

yes it should contain experimental features too that are mostly related to SmartClient, together with recent Andrei's work on #740.
Updated Files section
